

POWER UP REWARDS PROGRAM

What is Power Up Rewards Program?

Power up Rewards Program is a new rewards program that has four level, Members may progress to the higher level – Member, Silver, Gold, Platinum by earning Standard BonusLink Points at Shell.

When will the Power Up Rewards Program commence?

It will begin starting from 1 July 2022.

Does this apply to new and existing BonusLink Members?

Yes, it applies to new and existing BonusLink Members. Not applicable to non BonusLink Member.

How can I collect BonusLink Points and be part of Power Up Rewards Program?

To be part of the Power Up Rewards Program, BonusLink member can collect standard BonusLink Points from below by swiping a valid physical BonusLink Card or scanning a valid BonusLink Virtual Card via "BLINK App"

- a) Purchase any of Shell Fuels, Shell FuelSave 95, Diesel, Diesel Euro 5, Shell V-Power 97, and/or Shell V-Power Racing (collectively, "Shell Fuels"), Shell Helix Motor oil and/or Shell Advance Motorcycle oil (collectively, "Shell Lubricants") at Shell Stations during the Programme Period; and
- b) Purchase any of Shell SELECT items except for e-pay services, Touch & Go, co-locators and tobacco at Shell Stations during the Programme Period in which these items do not qualify for earning of BonusLink Points.

How does the Power Up Rewards Program work?

Level	Standard BonusLink points collection required for each tier in during each cycle (2 months)
Member	0 – 200 Standard Points
Silver	201- 600 Standard Points
Gold	601- 900 Standard Points
Platinum	901 Standard Points and above

- a. Standard Points eligible for Tiers progression are earned through any purchase of Shell Fuels and/or any purchase at Shell Stations including Shell Lubricants.
- b. Members are required to collect the minimum standard BonusLink Points as stated in table for each tier within the cycle and status will be upgraded instantly.

- c. Any bonus Standard points earned during promotions, campaigns, or point multipliers accumulated as part of the tier reward earned during each cycle will not be counted as part of the progression to level up.

Example #1:

For Gold Members who earn 2x Standard points with every RM1 spent on Fuels, only 1x Standard point will be counted as part of the progression to level up.

Example #2:

If you participate in a Shell Bonuslink campaign which allows you to earn 10x Standard point with RM1 spent on Lubricants within the promotion period, only 1x Standard only 1x Standard point will be counted as part of the progression to level up.

- d. Under the Programme, Member is allowed to collect up to a total of two thousand (2,000) Bonus Points per cycle from any rewards with a multiplier on any Qualifying Products at Shell Stations.
- e. Starting from 1 July 2022, the point structure is as below:
 One (1) Standard BonusLink Point for every 1 Litre of Fuels* purchased
 One (1) Standard BonusLink Point for RM1 purchase at Shell SELECT or Shell Lubricants
 *The current point structure of V-Power Racing (1 Litre = 1.25 Points) will no longer be eligible starting from 1 July 2022.
- f. Standard point redemption does not impact movement of the level of the program.

Example: If you are a Gold member with 700 Standard points and you redeem a Bonuslink Premium at 500 Standard points, it does not mean you are no longer a Gold member because you have a remainder of 200 Standard points. All you need to do is continue to earn enough points to maintain or progress to the next tier.

- g. The existing bonus points structure will be discontinued starting from 1 July 2022
